

Composition

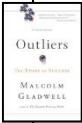

Week of March 20, 2017

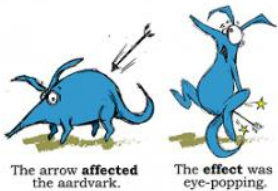

Activities	Objectives: The student will ...
Monday 3/20 1. Grammar 13.3 – Compound sentences and introductory elements, p. 243-246. 2. Review and redo Reading test #6, passages 4 and 5. 3. Pass out answers.	A. Demonstrate and practice comma and conjunction usage skills. B. Identify key ideas, details and support in a non-fiction reading selection.
Tuesday 3/21 1. 13.4: Sentence Interrupters and Nonessential Elements, pp. 247-248. 2. Evergreen Chapter 10: Compare Contrast practices 1, 2, 3. Practices 1, 3 and 4. 3. SAT Reading: test 5, passage 4.	A. Demonstrate and practice comma usage skills. B. Recognize the elements of compare contrast writing. C. Identify main ideas, details, and implied ideas when reading complex passages.
Wednesday 3/22 1. Finish College Reading: Chapter 6 – Relationships PT. II. 2. Turn in mastery and review exercises. 3. Test on Relationships PT. II, chapter 6. 4. Begin Chapter 7: Inferences (time permitting) 5. Continue reading Outliers – quiz Friday.	A. Understand connections or relationships between ideas in reading selections. B. Identify inferences in reading selections.
Thursday 3/23 *College Fair Block 2 Juniors: 10:00-10:50 1. Fill in alternative terms for Ethos, Pathos, Logos 2. Essay outline and plan sheet check in = 150 points. 3. Begin typing essays in Word or Google Docs. 4. Enter essays in Vantage, run My Editor and print grade sheet.	A. Assemble and evaluate an analysis of an essay/article. B. Synthesize information for an analytical essay. C. Record and recall the instructions for essay submission in an online software program.
Friday 3/24 1. Grammar 13.5 Other Comma Uses, pp. 249-250. 2. Turn in questions on Chapter 5 in Outliers : "The Three Lessons of Joe Flom." 3. Quiz on chapter 5. 4. Pass out new discussion questions. 5. Begin reading chapter 6: "Harlan Kentucky." 6. Video clip on Harlan County.	A. Demonstrate and practice comma usage skills. B. Draw conclusions about author's message, and values, and purpose.

DUE TODAY

QUIZ

NAME _____