

Sandburg and Masters

Epithet: define here (p. 1250 or 1378)

TONE: p. 824

	Pros	Cons
City Life	Variety of people Entertainment Job opportunities Things are close together WIFI	Traffic Crime/gangs Crowded Higher taxes Pollution expensive
Country Life	Quiet Space Nature Less crime Everybody knows everybody See the stars Outdoor sports	Bugs Less friends Lonely Wild animals Far from everything Boring Dark at night

Do question:

p. 828, #8

If I had a choice I would rather live in Sandburg's Chicago than in Matlock's Spoon River because (list 3 reasons)

P. 829, writing option #1 (4 line stanza)

Evergreen Park is the "Village of Churches": Holy Redeemer, St. Bernadette, and Jacob's Well

Evergreen Park is a village of businesses: Pappy's, Culver's, Pizza Man, and Barraco's

Evergreen Park is a village of parks: Circle Park, Aqua Park, Duffy Park, Candy Cane Park, and Cowboy Park

Evergreen Park: boring, quiet, small, safe, bland, suburban and urban, close- knit

We welcome newcomers and miss those who are gone.